

Managing Director Designate

Strategic Consultancy • London • Substantial package plus equity potential

Our client's 12 year track record of delivering inspirational change has allowed it to acquire an impressive client list including high profile, global names. Independent research confirms that they enable sustainable transformation by unlocking the true capacity that people bring to their organisation, changing the instinctive approach people have towards their work. Exceptional results are delivered using their unique Affirmatively Disruptive approach. This is an exciting and exceptional opportunity to build a business and achieve extraordinary results.

Specifically you will:

- Set strategy, goals and targets for the business, working in partnership with the founder
- Lead on business development and building client relationships
- Add to the portfolio of services in line with market changes and opportunities
- Recruit, develop and manage talent within the business, to achieve significant growth

To deliver, you must be an inspiring and motivational leader, with a passion for business development and effective execution of transformational programmes. You will be dynamic, charismatic and warm and demonstrate the highest levels of drive. Strong management skills, high levels of commercial acumen and an entrepreneurial spirit are essential. Likewise an impressive track record of building a team, growing a business and exploiting market opportunities is vital. You will have experience of working in large and complex organisations as well as within a Consultancy.

How will you use your passion for people and results to build this business?
